Get Ready for School - Register Today - Use Care Tomorrow

Your kids are back in school, but you may still need Target's back-up care program. We invite Target Team Members to come by to tour one of the centers to update or complete your registration, or just ask questions so you are ready for care when you need to use the back-up care program.

- You need back-up care during school holidays or school vacations
- You are transitioning between care arrangements
- You are transitioning back to work after leave
