Meet Our Director

Ashley Pritchett Center Director

Ashley joined the Bright Horizons in June 2013 as Education Coordinator, and stepped into the Director role in September 2014. Ashley graduated from Salem State University in May 2012, with degrees in Early Childhood Education and English. Prior to joining Bright Horizons, Ashley worked in childcare in various capacities throughout college: teaching preschool, and directing both an after-school program and a summer camp. Ashley's previous experience includes the YMCA of the North Shore and several local public schools. In her spare time, Ashley enjoys spending time with friends and family, traveling, paddle boarding and skiing.
